Susan Frederick-Gray Elected UUA President

Minister of Phoenix, Arizona, congregation wins three-way race to become UUA's ninth elected president and the first woman elected to the office.

—Christopher L. Walton 6/24/17
from UUWorld.org

The Unitarian Universalist Association elected the Rev. Susan Frederick-Gray as its ninth president on June 24. Frederick-Gray is the first woman elected to lead the liberal religious movement, which includes approximately 1,000 congregations with 200,000 adults and children in the United States.

But as she spoke to the UUA's General Assembly after being named winner in the three-way race, Frederick-Gray said, "I want to be clear, right up front. I am not the first female president of the UUA." As UUs cheered, she turned to applaud and then embrace the Rev. Sofía Betancourt, one of the three co-presidents appointed by the Board of Trustees to complete the term of President Peter Morales, who resigned April 1. "But I am honored to follow her!"

"This is a defining moment, and the stakes are very high," Frederick-Gray told the assembly, which [met] in New Orleans June 21-25. "We have deep work to do within our association and our tradition, and critical work to do beyond the association."

Throughout her campaign, which she launched in March 2016, Frederick-Gray championed the UUA as "a voice for love and justice." She promoted a three-point vision of a "spiritually vital" movement "grounded in relationships" and "organized for impact."

"We have much work to do," she told the assembly. "I believe we are up to it. I look forward to working with you on this transformative path ahead."

In the instant run-off election, in which 3,252 delegates cast ballots, Frederick-Gray received 40% of the vote in the first round to 32% for the Rev. Jeanne Pupke and 28% for the Rev. Alison Miller. By the rules of the instant run-off, Miller was eliminated as the third-place finisher. When second-place votes were apportioned, Frederick-Gray finished with 56% to Pupke's 42%.

WHO WE ARE
AND WHAT WE BELIEVE

At the Unitarian Universalist Church of Annapolis, we are seekers of the truth.

We invite all persons of every faith, creed, culture and background to engage in a search for truth with us. We believe in the dignity and worth of every human being and in freedom of expression. We welcome and celebrate all people, be they straight, gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgender.

We are committed to this church as an institution, to social justice, to liberal religious exploration and education for all ages, to mutual caring and support, and to the value of diversity.

We strive to care about each other and the health of our community and the world. We are an environmentally sensitive, "green" community.

This church is a place of safety for each person's mind, body and spirit. Toward that end, we covenant to affirm and promote: Honesty and authenticity in our relationships; words that are supportive and caring, not belittling or demeaning; a welcoming and non-judgmental attitude; respect for each person's boundaries of mind, body and spirit; and listening to one another.

In order to serve the congregation and the greater community, we also strive to create an environment that challenges, inspires, encourages and supports the quest for religious fulfillment.

Please join us!

Celebrating Rev. Fred--Retirement Event News

—Dianne Moreau

The Celebrating Rev. Fred Muir Committee recently sent an email to all UUCA's members & friends regarding Rev. Fred's retirement gift from the congregation. If you missed that message, or have questions, see one of the committee members wearing a badge that says "Ask Me About Rev. Fred's Gift" on Sunday mornings. Please, feel free to share this information with former UUCA members but remember we are trying to keep this a secret from Rev. Fred!

You can drop your contribution in the box labeled for Fred's Gift in the church office. Please make checks payable to Dianne Moreau or Jane Andrews. This contribution is not tax deductible.

What is not a surprise are the dates for celebrating Rev. Fred and expressing our gratitude to him for his 34 years of service. See below, and mark your calendar:

October 15 - Children's Celebration (for ALL ages, through YRUU) held after Middle Hour in the sanctuary; no 11:15 service that day

October 19 - Luncheon at Collington Continuing Care Center for the residents who are also members of UUCA

November 4 - Musical Tribute with Desserts held that evening in the sanctuary. A $5 donation per adult is requested.

November 11- Dinner Celebration 6:00-10:00 PM; Ss. Helen & Constantine Byzantium (Greek Orthodox church), 2747 Riva Road. Ticket prices/sale dates TBA. Several former interns and colleagues will be attending as well.

November 12- Presentation of Congregational Gift will take place immediately following the 9:00 AM service. Couples married and children blessed by Rev. Fred will also be recognized as well.

December ? - Rev. Fred's final service - date to be announced later.

Envisioning Our Future Together

—Linda Rhoads, Vice President

Over the past year, the Vision Team has reached out to the congregation to listen to you. The Team wanted to capture the values of the congregation, what brings you to UUCA, keeps you coming and motivates you to continue.

The Team has taken the words you gave us and created a draft vision for your consideration. Attend one of the sessions listed below and take a look at what we've written. Does it speak to you? Do some parts represent your values more than others? Do these statements provide a direction for the UUCA to move ahead over the next years?

We need to hear from you. The resulting vision will be presented for adoption at the December 2017 Congregational Meeting. Please come participate in one of the following discussion sessions (childcare will be provided at some; watch future publications for details):

Tuesday, September 5 12:00 PM
Thursday, September 7 7:00 PM
Saturday, September 9 9:00 AM
Tuesday, September 12 12:00 PM
Tuesday, September 12 7:00 PM
Thursday, September 14 7:00 PM

Who We Are, What We Value and Who We Aspire to Be

At UUCA, we are.....

Courageously seeking authentic relationships across differences
Moving ourselves, our church, and our world toward wholeness, connection and love
Engaging in a lifelong journey of learning and spiritual growth
Practicing radical hospitality, acceptance and inclusivity
Providing a haven for all identities and a sanctuary for all peoples
Honoring our whole selves, identities and faith journeys

Next Board of Trustees meeting: Monday, August 14

Middle Hour Session Leaders Needed

—Ginger Parsons

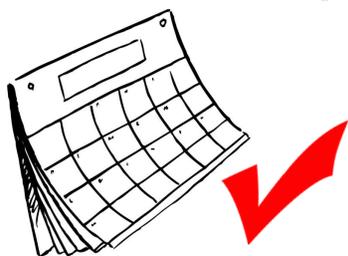

MIDDLE HOUR

The Adult Middle Hour Team is soliciting Middle Hour session leaders and ideas for the 2017-2018 church year (2 services resume on Sunday, September 17). You need not be an expert, just interested in sharing something you love with your faith community. In order to provide a wide variety of offerings, with a range of topics and learning styles, we have created a few policies. Our hope is to provide opportunities for leadership among a large number of church members and friends. Sessions are scheduled by the Adult Middle Hour Team and may include up to 3 Sundays for each topic offered.

Please submit ideas and requests by September 5 to Ginger Parsons; ginparsons@aol.com.

UUCA Program/Group/Committee Calendar Updates

It's that time of year again - as the new church year approaches, all UUCA programs, groups, committees, events, etc must update their calendar/room reservations for 2017-18.

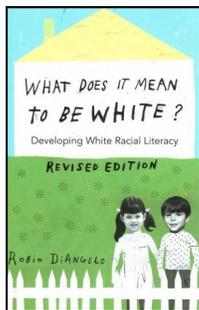

How it works: All contact persons will receive an email with an Update Form in the beginning of August. That form must be completed in its entirety and returned to the office as soon as possible but NO LATER THAN August 31. As always, space is first-come, first-served. Contact persons will also be asked to submit web updates, as this task is also completed in September.

Contact Michele Reese; mreese@uuannapolis.org

Robin DiAngelo Returns to UUCA

—Thornell Jones

Robin DiAngelo, author of What Does It Mean to Be White? will be returning to the area the weekend of October 28-29. We hope to hold an event for people in the Annapolis and Anne Arundel county areas on Saturday, October 28 - a workshop that will address unconscious bias in our communities.

In order to have a successful event, we need YOU! To see how to help (either now or in October), contact Thornell Jones; Thornell.jones.16@gmail.com, with conference in the subject line.

Your assistance will ensure that we are successful in initiating a broad, systemic change as we work toward dismantling racism in our communities.

Fall RE Registration Opens Soon!

Registration for Fall RE classes will open at the end of August - please watch for more information through In the Know or on the display table in the narthex. Registration materials will be available in both locations.

Fall RE classes begin Sunday, September 17 when we return to 2 services!

UU Buddhist Fellowship at General Assembly Offers Service for “Resilience for Challenging Times”

—Phyllis Culham

Two facilitators of the Mindfulness Practice Group attended the service offered by UU Buddhist clergy at the Unitarian Universalist General Assembly in New Orleans. This collective experience of refreshing spiritual practices, on June 22, was to renew us in our joint endeavors “to support the work of justice.” Officiants were Revs. Florence Caplow, Catherine Senghas (President of the UUBF,) Mary Grigolia, and Patrice Curtis. Well over a hundred people packed into a room meant to seat about eighty, and Bob Ertman, who had barely got in the back, said that many more arrived, tried to hear while standing outside, and then left when they could not. With the exception of Rev. (and Roshi) James Ford’s Conrad Wright Lecture in UU History in a giant exhibition space at the 2016 GA, UU Buddhist programs consistently have far overrun the space allotted in all recent years, and this reporter hopes that organizers will take note of this.

One of the themes for renewal in this service was to “return to the body” and nourish the heart. Rev. Curtis stressed that she was among the members of the UU Buddhist Fellowship who was not a Buddhist per se but eclectic in building herself a practice which prominently featured Buddhist and Hindu practices. She led body practices, namely chanting while observing the depth of breath in our bodies and Thich Nhat Hanh’s Mindful Movement. Rev. Senghas in her presidential encouragement noted that non-Buddhist contemplative and body practitioners were a substantial percentage of UU Buddhist Fellowship membership and very welcome indeed, as they are in UUCA’s Mindfulness Practice Group, a UUBF affiliate. Rev. Caplow led a practice in a frequent theme of the MPG: awareness of death and mindfulness of what will continue as our legacy afterward. Rev. Grigolia, a composer of wonderful meditative music, led us in songs at beginning and end. Renewal? Attained!

SUNDAY WORSHIP AT UUCA

ALL SUMMER WORSHIP SERVICES ARE AT 10:00 AM

Sunday, August 6:

“Fanatics Pt 2 - Religion & Politics”

Rev. John Crestwell

Political and religious fanaticism has led to scores of violent encounters in our nation and world. Today we look at how to mitigate this illness in our society.

Music by UUCA Summer Choir.

Sunday, August 13:

“Fanatics Pt 3 - Moderation”

Rev. John Crestwell

The "middle way" and surrender are the best approaches to create successful human relationships. We will explore this and more...

Music by Betsy Kraning.

Sunday, August 20:

“Is Unity An Illusion?”

Rev. Fred Muir

It's about this time every year that we read about the tensions and divisions in religious denominations (we hear about it now because they are having their annual gatherings). Such tensions are a part of our faith history too; in fact, UUs often experienced tensions and divisions before others. Join me as I share one of our faith community's most tumultuous times and see if it sounds familiar.

Music by Sara Jones.

Sunday, August 27:

“When the Past Becomes Present”

Rev. Fred Muir

A renowned author noted: "The past is never dead. It's not even past." Or as Yogi Berra is supposed to have said: "It's deja vu all over again." The last six months have been challenging times for religious liberals, especially UUs. Just when we may have thought our past was dead ... here we go again. Join me as I continue looking at how our way of faith has been a harbinger of America's path.

Music by Josh Long.

Sunday Service Help Needed

Volunteering on Sunday mornings is a great way to get involved and meet new people! Typically a once-a-month commitment; you can choose to be a Greeter or an Usher.

Interested? Contact the following:

Greeters - Al Pulsifer;
ajpulsifer@verizon.net

Ushers - Wendi Winters;
wendiwinters1@gmail.com

SHARE-THE-PLATE COLLECTION

The June Share-the-Plate raised a total of $886 for the UU Emergency Fund. The July collection total will be reported in the September issue.

For August, the Share-the-Plate will support Habitat for Humanity. For information on our most recent Habitat project, contact Pat Fleearty; pfleearty@hotmail.com.

Every Sunday, the offering will be divided evenly between the chosen recipient and UUCA's operating budget. Therefore, if you place a check in the offering plate, you must indicate pledge or plate share on the memo line. If a check is without notation, it will automatically be applied to the plate share. Once the funds have been transferred to the charity, your contribution cannot be reallocated to your pledge. Thank you for your generosity.

If you have any questions about Share-the-Plate charities, contact Diane Goforth; dsgoforth@aol.com. For questions about Share-the-Plate policies, contact the Church Office - mreese@uuannapolis.org.
