

Members as Vendors

Due to possible conflicts of interest, members will not be used as vendors. Members are free to donate goods and services to support the mission of the church however, the church will not solicit the services of members for goods or services.