

Political Campaign Policy

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Annapolis strictly prohibits individuals from using the church as a place to candidate for political office or a political party. The church shall neither engage in fundraising for a candidate, may not donate meeting space for a candidate or a political party or in any way endorse or support a candidate for political office.

Approved by Executive Team 10/10/19

KR/JC/LC/JB/PA