Spirituality and Nature

Jannina Ortiz and Lizzie Laumann first met when they were both Paint Nite artists. Having known each other for years, they have supported each other and became friends. They decided to do this show together.

Jannina's collection of artwork is inspired by her faith and world travels. All of her paintings and digital artwork are created from dreams that she has had.

Lizzie's collection stems from her love of plants, ladybugs, and the small, beautiful moments.

Jannina Ortiz

Jannina Ortiz has been a creative person her whole life. She has a B.F.A in Design and Technical Theatre, as well as a B.S. in Digital Entertainment and Game Design. She spent 15 years in the theatre and film industry as a costume designer and stage manager. Although she loved her time with Walt Disney World and Universal Orlando, her heart was with the fine arts. She draws, paints, and creates digital art. Although she does work with watercolors and oils, her preferred medium is acrylics. All of her paintings originate from dreams that she has had.

She chose to join the UUCA as their Administrative Assistant because she wanted more time to do her art, while still working for a group that is actively working towards improving the world. The fact that she can respectfully discuss her faith and not fear being fired, was the cherry on top! She believes that we can exist together, help each other, and learn from each other.

Lizzie Laumann

The Basic Artist

Elizabeth Aka “Lizzie” Laumann is a local Maryland artist, with a degree in Art Techniques from Anne Arundel Community College. Lizzie has been painting for over ten years and hasn't put her paintbrush down since. She has been teaching specialized painting classes for advanced and beginner painters for approximately 6 years. She is also specialized in all sorts of medium from candle making to resin pouring. Lizzie finds her inspirations from various sites and sounds while traveling, and tries to incorporate this through her canvas or work.
